English Drama - The Lion King

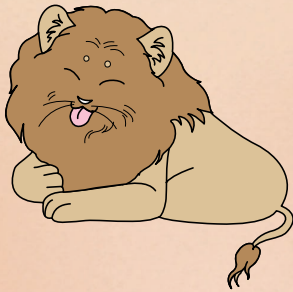

African natives were beating Djembes (African drums). Animals were dancing and singing “Circle of Life” in celebration of the birth of their new prince, Simba. That was how a cast of over one hundred P4 to P6 boys spectacularly started “The Lion King” in the new school hall, creating an atmosphere in which the audience could feel as if they were in an African plain.

The production had many fascinations. A large variety of animals which looked so real were brought to life on stage by our boys scrupulously dressed up in carefully designed costumes. The African natives were hardly distinguishable from true ones. The boys’ lively performance, combined with fabulous music and songs and sensational stage props and effects, made “The Lion King” a magnificent spectacle. The audience generously showed their appreciation by giving thunderous applause at the finale of the drama.

Chinese Musical - The Little Frog 音樂劇 — 小青蛙

The musical was about a little frog that lacked confidence and felt unhappy with himself. He wished he could be as beautiful as the fireflies, fly like the egrets and be as brave as the tortoises. One day, an owl paid the frog a surprise visit and helped him discover his own talent. Finally, the frog was happy, for he had learnt to appreciate himself. The musical would not be a success without the support of parents, teachers and pupils.

音樂劇「小青蛙」透過講述小青蛙的經歷，告訴小朋友每個人都有自己的長處。由於時間緊迫，故此在十二月至一月期間排練得非常頻密。小演員們要從暖烘烘的被窩裏鑽出來，真是需要莫大的決心。幸而，同學們都相當合作，每天準時於早上七時四十五分回校練習。「小青蛙」能夠演出成功，實在要感激家長、老師及同學們的鼎力支持。
